Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

VIENNA, May 4 O. S.

THE Emperor's Reſolution is fix'd to declare War againſt the Porte, on the Return of the Courier lately ſent to Petersburgh with a Copy of the Declaration. Colonel Bernclau is made Major-General, and is ſetting out from thence for the Ruſſian Army, attended by above 30 Engineers and other experienced Officers. It is now reſolved, that the Army to be form'd in Hungary will be in four different Bodies. The firſt near Semlin, to conſiſt of 24 Battalions, 19 Companies of Grenadiers, and 64 Squadrons, and to be commanded by Count Seckendorff, who is to have under him the Counts Philippi and Khevenhuller, Generals of the Horſe; Wuſchleditz Wallis, Petraſch, Stirum Bathiani, Cavanagh, and Charles Palfi, Lieutenant Generals; 12 Major Generals, and a Quarter-Maſter General. The ſecond Body near Vipalanka, conſiſting of 23 Battalions, 28 Companies of Grenadiers, and 28 Squadrons, to be commanded by General Schmettau, who is to have under him Count Wurmbrand, General of the Horſe; the Lieutenant-Generals Leutrum, Thungen, Miglio, and Stein; and five Major Generals. The third in Tranſilvania, conſiſting of 38 Squadrons and 12 Battalions, under the command of Count Francis Wallis, with two Lieutenant-Generals and five Major-Generals. Theſe three Armies, conſiſting of about Seventy Thouſand Men, beſides the Saxon Auxiliaries, and the Hungarian Militia, are to join and make but one Army, under the Command of the Velt-Marſhal Count Seckendorff till the Arrival of the Duke of Lorrain. The fourth Body is to act ſeparately, under the Conduct of the Prince of Sax Hildebourghauſen; who is to have three Lieutenant-Generals and ſix Major Generals under him: His Army is to conſiſt of 15 Battalions, 13 Companies of Grenadiers, and 33 Squadrons, beſides 20,000 Croatians. It is impoſſible to expreſs the Vaſtneſs of our Preparations for a vigorous and a bloody War: In ſhort, they infinitely ſurpaſs any Thing that was ever known in any of our former Wars againſt the Porte.

Copenhagen, May 10. O. S. An Order is publiſh'd, that no Maſters, Men or Goods ſhall be allow'd to come on ſhore here, or elſewhere in this Kingdom, coming from Dantzick, Koningsburg, or Places adjacent, on Account of the Sickneſs reigning in Poland and Dantzick; and that the Maſters of all Nations coming from thoſe Places, muſt clear their Duties on board of the Daniſh Guard Ship, lying in the Road of Elſeneur.

Biſhops Caſtle, May 15. On Friday Morning laſt about two of the Clock, about break of Day, there was felt here a great Earthquake, which laſted about a Minute, to the great Surprize and Aſtoniſhment of all thoſe that were awake at that Time, and many were awaked by it; 'twas firſt heard by a rumbling great Noiſe, like the latter End of a Thunder Clap, and then immediately the Houſes and Beds ſhook violently, and allthe Things in the Houſes; Doors clatter'd, like violently going to be open'd; Glaſs in the Windows, Shelves and Frames with Pewter, made a Noiſe; Candleſticks, &c. tumbled down, Inhabitants ſtarting up out of their Beds in ſuch Conſternation, as tho' the Houſes (of Stone and Timber built) were tumbling down about them: Friday the 13th Inſtant, being our Market Day here, the Market People related, the ſame Shock was felt that very Morning at the ſame Time, many Miles round this Town.

The Progreſs of the Pretender's eldeſt Son into ſeveral Parts of Europe, makes a great Noiſe. A grand Apartment is fitting up for him in the Monaſtery of St. Catherine, belonging to the Benedictine Monks at Genoa; and 'tis generally reported, that the Genoeſe intend him the Iſland of Corſica. ----- Letters from Paris of the 20th Inſt. adviſe, that this young Adventurer is expected in that City about the Cloſe of next Month, and that he is to make ſome Stay there; his Deſign being ſuppoſed to be to ſeek out a Wife amongſt the Princeſſes of France.

We hear that his Majeſty has been pleas'd to appoint his Grace the Duke of Argyle and Greenwich to be Governor of Edinburgh Caſtle, in the Room of the late Earl of Orkney, deceas'd.

And alſo to appoint the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Shannon to be Governor of Portſmouth, in the Room of the Duke of Argyle.

We hear that the Inſolvent Debtors Bill ſtands thus, as amended by the Lords, and commences from the Firſt of January; every Perſon will be entitled to the Benefit if the Sum does not exceed 500 l. and that Bankrupts giving in a Certificate, will likewiſe be entitled to the Benefits of the Bill as well as others. Perſons that are abroad are within the Act.

May 26. By the Flanders Mail Yeſterday 'tis adviſed, that the Imperial Troops were all in a Hurry aſſembling in Hungary; but that the Ground is parched up with the long Drought, and unleſs they have ſome Rain there very ſoon, there will be a total Scarcity of Forrage. The Saxon Troops deſigned for the Emperor's Service, are by this time arrived in Bohemia; they carry with them 8 Waggon Loads of Powder, and 32 of all ſorts of Ammunition, beſides 8 Pieces of Cannon, which by the help of a new Machine can be fir'd three times ſooner than a common Piece.

From Genoa the 4th Inſt. that the Pretender's Son at his Arrival in that City, was received with the greateſt Marks of Diſtinction by the Nobility; the Spaniſh Envoy has likewiſe paid him a Viſit.

We are told that the new Loan for lending the Emperor 250,000 l. is already fill'd.

Yeſterday the Bill for ſettling 50,000 l. on her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, as a Jointure, was read a firſt Time, and Order'd nem. con. to be read a ſecond Time.

The Publick Attention is much taken up with a Project ſaid to have been form'd ſome Time paſt, for Means of uniting moſt ſtrictly the Courts of Vienna and Madrid.

That

That according to this Plan, Tuſcany ſhould be given to the Infant Don Philip.

That an Equivalent be given in Money to the Duke of Lorrain, for the Loſs of that great Dutchy.

The Court of Spain aſſiſt the Emperor powerfully in his War againſt the Turks.

That over and above this, ſhe will guaranty the Meaſures his Imperial Majeſty has taken of ſecuring the Pragmatick Sanction; and that the Second Archdutcheſs be given in Marriage to the King of the two Sicilies.

London, May 17. Extract of a Letter from Sarum, dated May 15.

On Thurſday laſt a Load of Wheat belonging to Farmer Waters of Britford near this City, which was going to Red Bridge for Exportation, was ſtopt near White Pariſh, by about threeſcore People, who firſt knock'd down the Fore Horſe, then cut the Waggon and Wheels to pieces, cut the Sacks, and ſtrew'd about the Corn, and threatned they would ſerve all the Perſons after that manner they ſhould meet with, who ſhould offer to carry any more Wheat for Exportation. The ſame Perſons have ſince ſtopped ſeveral more Waggons, ſome of which were loaded with Malt, which they, after Examination, let paſs. It's thought this will put a Stop to the Farmer's hereabouts carrying any more Wheat for Exportation, becauſe it now ſells for 5 s. 6 d. per Buſhel.

May 19. Letters from Santa Cruz in the Kingdom of Suz in Africa, ſay, that they have the Appearance of a moſt plentiful Crop, but are under the moſt dreadful Apprehenſions of loſing every Grain by the coming of innumerable Swarms of Graſhoppers, which Inſects were never ſeen in Barbary before. Some Santons (Mahometan Enthuſiaſts in great Eſteem among the Infidels of that Country) have declar'd thoſe Graſhoppers to be the Forerunners of a moſt dangerous Scourge from Heaven, if they continue to ſell their Corn to the Chriſtians of Europe: But the Merchants of Santa Cruz (like the Farmers and Cornfactors of Great Britain) have little Regard to any Predictions or Reaſons that claſh with their own private Intereſt; and, ſays our Correſpondent, ſtill continue to ſend the Corn abroad as uſual. As to the Exportation of our own Corn, it is undoubtedly beneficial to the Farmer, and to the Kingdom in general, as long as it does not hurt the Conſumer here; but if not put under ſuch a Regulation as may not leave the Country too much unprovided in caſe the Crop ſhould fail, which God forbid, it may prove of terrible Conſequences in the End. The Duties upon Windows, Leather, Soap and Candles certainly bear very hard upon the poor, and the labouring Part of the Nation; but the Exportation of Bread Corn, without proper Reſtriction, to keep it at the ſame Time from riſing to above 5 s. and 6 d. per Buſhel at home, will bear much harder upon them: It will be grinding the Face of the Poor to fatten and plump up that of the Farmer. There has been a great Outcry againſt the Annuitants becauſe they receive 4 per Cent. for Money lent to the Government in its Neceſſity; and the Pretext for this Outcry was the Relief of the Poor, the Labourer and the Tradeſman; but if this Exportation of our Corn goes on, it may perhaps raiſe the Price to Seven or Eight Shillings a Buſhel; the Farmer indeed grows rich, but pray what becomes of the Poor, the Tradeſman and the middling ſort of People then? Will they not be in a much worſe Condition than the Intereſt of 4 per Cent. can poſſibly make them? And if we carry as much Corn out of the Kingdom, as not to leave ſufficient at home for a rainy Day, what becomes of the Nation in general: It is not long ſince this Folly, for ſo it may juſtly be call'd, oblig'd us to have Recourſe to Holland for Bread; and even to buy back our own Wheat from them for double the Price they gave for it but a few Months before. If the World will be ſo generous as to take our own Words, we are by much the wiſer Nation in it; but notwithſtanding our ſelf boaſted Wiſdom, we are every Day ſtumbling at Straws and leaping over Beams.

'Tis computed that about 10,000 Quarters of all Sorts of Grain have been exported within theſe eight Weeks to Spain.

A Wager of 200 l. has been laid, that the intended Bridge at Weſtminſter, will be paſſable by the 20th Day of October 1738.

His Honour the Lieutenant Governor's Speech.

Gentlemen,

" AS His Majeſty's Honour and the true Intereſt and " Proſperity of the Province, which I have moſt " warmly at Heart, were prevailing Motives with me to " diſſolve the laſt Aſſembly; I am highly pleaſed that the " People have made the right Uſe of the Opportunity I " gave them, in chooſing ſuch Gentlemen to repreſent " them, as I am firmly perſwaded, come with Reſolutions to anſwer thoſe great Ends of their Election.

" THE approaching Harveſt forbidding me to expect " You could at this Time ſit, to do Buſineſs, I take that " Opportunity to meet the Six Nations at Albany, to renew the covenant Chain, and to endeavour to prevail with " the Cinekees, to revoke a Promiſe of Leave, which they " have unjuſtly and unadviſedly given to John Cœur, a " Frenchman of Canada, to build an Houſe in their Country, at Tierondequat, a Place, which if poſſeſt by the " French, will enable them to intercept all the Weſtern " Fur-Trade, in its Way to Oſwego; at preſent therefore " I have nothing to recommend to You but this; That every " one in his reſpective Station and County, may endeavour to carry to Perfection the good Harmony that is already happily begun in the Province, to which nothing " ſhall be wanting on my Part, and I aſſure my ſelf of the " utmoſt Succeſs from Your Aſſiſtance.

GEO. CLARK.

The Bill entituled, An Act to reſtain Tavern-keepers and Inholders from ſelling ſtrong Liquors to Servants, and from giving large Credit to others, was read the firſt Time, and ordered to be read the ſecond time.

The Addreſs of the Houſe in Anſwer to the above Speech.

To the Honourable George Clark, Eſq; Lieut. Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-York, &c.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

WE agree with You, That His Majeſty's Honour and the Intereſt & Proſperity of this Colony required the Diſſolution of the late General Aſſembly, and our Conſtituents were highly pleaſed with the Opportunity You gave them of Chooſing ſuch Perſons to repreſent them, as they believed had the Intereſt of the Country truly at Heart; and we do aſſure Your Honour, we will endeavour ſo to behave our ſelves, as to give them no Reaſon to repent of their Choice.

As this good Beginning has very plainly ſhewn the Unanimity of their Inclinations, ſo we perſwade ourſelves it will have it's proper Effects upon all concerned, and prove the beginning of an Harmony (hitherto with Impatience wiſh'd for) which we hope will long ſubſiſt amongſt us.

Your Honour can only be the Judge, what Credit is to be given to the Information You have received concerning the Indians and how far the Danger is real or not: and we doubt not the Concern a Perſon in Your Station ought to have for His Majeſty's Honour and the Safety of the Colony, will Induce one of Your known Sagacity to act as becomes You on this Occaſion; We therefore wiſh You a Good Paſſage, and a Safe Return.

The

The nigh Approach of Harveſt, and after that of Seed Time makes the deferring of our Meeting to a farther Day neceſſary, and we hope (we more than flatter ourſelves) that our next Meeting will be attended with all the good Conſequences ſuitable to the Occaſion.

By Order of the Houſe.

Mr. FRANKLIN,

I AM the Author of a Copy of Verſes in the laſt Mercury. It was my real Intention to appear open, and not baſely with my Vizard on, attack a Man who had fairly unmasked. Accordingly I ſubſcribed my Name at full Length, in my Manuſcript ſent to my Brother B------d; but he, for ſome incomprehenſible Reaſon, inſerted the two initial Letters only, viz. B,L. 'Tis true, every Syllable of the Performance diſcovers me to be the Author; but as I meet with much Cenſure on the Occaſion, I requeſt you to inform the Publick, that I did not deſire my Name ſhould be conceal'd; and that the remaining Letters are, O,C,K,H,E,A,D.

P. S. For the Encouragement of Critical Learning, and to promote a Taſte for the Beauties of fine Writing, I hereby offer as a Reward, all my Works in Proſe and Verſe, that have been to this time printed in the Mercury, to that Perſon who ſhall beſt explain the Meaning of theſe fine Expreſſions uſed in my laſt Piece; viz. bribe his Senſe; bribe his Senſe to purchaſe; venally beſet; beſet to own; ſcreen his Shame; patronize his Claim; Hirelings ſound their Name, &c.

P. S. the 2d. I underſtand that the Perſons reflected on in my ſaid Verſes, intend me no Anſwer, as judging me a Scribler too contemptible for their Notice; but I deſign to have t'other Hit at 'em ere long.
